Notice of Assessment FAQ

What is a Notice of Assessment?

A Notice of Assessment is a form that Revenue Canada sends back to you as a summary of your received Tax Return.

What does a Notice of Assessment look like?

Below is a sample notice or assessment, showing the top of the page that has line 260 on it (circled). This is the line the Committee needs to see, to confirm you meet the financial requirements to be eligible to apply. The year (also circled) must be the most recent tax year.

Line	Description	$ Amount
150	Total income
236	Net income
Deductions from net income
260	Taxable income	$0,000.00
350	Total federal non-refundable tax credits

Where can I get a copy of my Notice of Assessment?

You can get a copy of your Notice of Assessment by contacting the Canada Revenue Agency or by logging in to your online account with them at: <http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/tpcs/ncm-tx/ssmnt-eng.html> If you submit the online version please include both pages (the one that shows line 260 and the one with the year and your name).

- I meet the financial criteria outlined below:

Persons in a Family Unit	The combined Taxable Income ( line 260 on each person's income tax Notice of Assessment, as shown in image above ) of all income earners in family unit who are financially responsible for each other is at or below the following levels.
1	≤ $33,000
2	≤ $45,000
3	≤ $50,000
4	≤ $55,000
5	≤ $60,000
